CHE VEGETABLE EVERA D'MORSE'S INVICORATING CORDIAL

INVICOBATING CORDIAL

FOR GENTIAL DEBILITY, IMPOTENCY, INCONTINENCE, OR NOCTURNAL EMISSIONS, &c.—The actonishing success which has attended this invaluable medicins, for Loss of Muscular Emergy, Physical Lassitude, and General Prostration, or any of the consequences of youthful indiscretion, or indulgence of the passion in riper years, renders it the most valuable preparation ever discovered. In fact, as a remedy for the above complaints, it stands unrivalled and alone. There is no other reliable remedy, or any that has authentically received the sanction of the Medical Vacuity. The WONDERFUL VEGETABLE PREDUCTION of which this mediciae is composed has been tested, and its virtues proclaimed, by the highest names of the faculty of London, Paris, and the chief cities of Europe, as well as by eminent Physicians in this country. It is the only infallible remedy for NERVOUS, HEAD, and MIND COMPLAINTS—the mental physic so long sought for and nover before found—the only agent that can administer to MIND DISEASES. It will remove all nervous affections, DEPRESSION, EXCITEMENT, incapacity to study or business, loss of MEMORY, CONFU-ION, thoughts of self-destruction, fear of insanity, &c. It will restore the appetite, renew the health of those who have destroyed it by Sensual Excesses or evil practices. It has been said by soome that these disorders, emissions, &c., were incurable. DR. MORSE'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL has cured, and is constantly curing, these complaints—relieving the mental and bodily incapacity of the unfortunate sufferer, as the following testimony of the names received will conclusively above:

Dr. Woodward, of ——, Massachusetts Insane Hospital, ments and county incepacy or a manuscrucived will conclusively show:

Dr. Woodward, of ——, Masrachusetts Insane Hospital, writes of one of his patients being cur-d by using this Cordial thus: "It gives me pleasure to inform you that one of my patients, while in Boston, procured some of your Cordial. He tells me that he has not had a single emission since he commenced taking it, while before he had two or three a week. When he applied to me," says Dr. W., "I thought it hardly possible for him ever to regain his full strength. I prescribed the usual medicine used in those cases in the hospital, but they had no cilect. In the mean time he purchased some of your Cordial, which has effected a cure I am sure no other medicine would. I shill ever recommend it, wheever an opportunity occurs."

The nature of the maladies relieved by this Cordial are generally such as to leave the publication of certificates of generally such as to leave the publication of certificate sures out of the question. The proprietor could produnest of the most conclusive testimony to show that the gr reputation it enjoys was not accidentally obtained, but i firmly based upon its positive and apparently miraculou virtues. In all directions are to be found the happy parent of healthy offsprings, who would not have been so but for this extraordinary preparation. And it is equally potent for many diseases for which it is recommended. THE MEDICAL JOURNALS have not, in a single instance that has been authenticated, given their sanction to any other preparation for the above complaints. It has, in many violent and desperate case-effected radical cures after patients had been abandoned, and their condition pronounced hopeless by medical practioners of high professional character.

THE COMMON EXPRESSION

THE COMMON EXPRESSION of those who have used this Extract is: "I had heard your Cordial highly spoken of, but was one of the incredulous in regard to its merits, having tried various medicines sold for the same purpose, different Sarsaparillas,) without deriving any benefit. I had almost given up all hose of obtaining relief, when I purchased some of your Cordial. I had ne faith whatever of its benefiting me—but it has. I feel stronger, have had no emissions since, although it is not three weeks. I am catisfied that the half a dozen bottles I took will cure me."

Another says: "I had consulted several distinguished physicians. Some sald I could not be cured; others prescribed this thing and that; but I found no relief until I procured some of your Cordial. I must say it completely cured me."

Another says: "I was surprised at the effect your Cordial had. Why had I not heard of it before? It would have saved me so much expense, besides years of mental and bodily auffering."

bodily auffering."

OAUTION.—Ask for Dr. Morse's Cordial, and take no other, as there are worthless imitations which its unrivalled excellence, fame, and popularity have brought into the market. It will not burt the most delicate ismale, but do good. Beware of all other Cordials, &c., and try only this. It is put up in plat bottles, with the words Dr. MORSET. INVIGORATING CORDIAL blown on the glass. Price $3 per bottle; two bottles, $5; six bottles, $12; and $24 per dozen.

MARRIAGE.

Married persons, or those contemplating marriage, being aware of physical weakness, should immediately consult Dr. J., and be restored to perfect health.

DR. JOHNSTON.

Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, Graduate from one of the most eminent Colleges of the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the Hospitals of London, Paris, Philadolphia, and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonibling cures that were ever known. Many troubled with rhading in the cars and head when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, and bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.

Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.

Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by private and improper indulgences, that cord and solitary habit, which ruin both body and mind, unfitting them for either business or society. habit, which ruin both body and mind, unfitting them for either business or society.

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Dernangement of the Digestive Functions, General bebility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c., &c.

Mentally.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Aversion of Society, Self Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

Weakness of the system, Nervous Debility and premature decay generally arise from the destructive habit of youth, that solitary practice so fatal to the healthful existence of man, and it is the young who are most apt to become its victims, from an ignorance of the dangers to which they subject themselves. Parents and Guardians are often misled with respect to the cause or source of disease in their sons and wards. Alas! how often do they ascribe to other causes the wasting of the frame, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, derangement of the Nervous System, Cough, and Symptoms of Consumption; also those serious Mental effects, such as loss of Memory, Depression of Spirits, or peculiar fits of Melancholy, when the truth is, they have been caused by indulging in Pernicious but alluring practices, destructive to both Body and Mind. Thus are swept from existence thousands who might have been of use to Society. NERVOUS DEBILITY.

from existence thousands who might have been of use to their Country, a pleasure to their friends, and ornaments to Society.

DR. JOHNSTON'S INVIGORATING REMEDY FOR ORGANIC WEAKNESS.

This grand and important Remedy has restored strength and vigor to thousands of the most debilitated individuals, many who had lost all hopes, and been abandoned to die. By its complete invigoration of the Nervous System, the whole faculties become restored to their proper power and functions, and the fallen fabric of life is raised up to beauty, consistency and duration, upon the ruins of an emaciated and premature decline, to sound and pristine bealth. Oh, how happy have hundreds of misguided youths been made, who have been suddenly restored to health from the devastations of those terrific maladies which result from indiscretion! Such persons, before contemplating MARRIAGE, should reflect that a sound mind and bedy are the most necessary requisites to promote commubial happiness. Indeed, without this, the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage; the prospect heurly darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair, and filled with the melantholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with our own. Let no false delicacy prevent you, but apply immediately.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. Johnston may religiously confide in his honor as a Grutleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a Physician.

TO STRANGERS.

The many thousands cured at this institution within the last ten years, and the numerous important Surgical Operations perfermed by Dr. J., witnessed by the Reporters of the papers and many other persons, notices of which have appeared regain and again before the public, is a sufficient guara ity that the afflicted will find a skilful and honorable physican.

TAKE NOTICE.

It is with the greatest reluctance that Dr. Johnston persons the state of the public of the public beautiful persons.

TAKE NOTICE. TAKE NOTICE.

It is with the greatest reluctance that Dr. Johnston permits his card to appear before the public, deeming it unprofessional for a physician to advertise; but unless he did so, fessional for a physician to advertise; but unless he did so, the afflicted, especially strangers, could not fail to fall into the hands of these imprudent, boasting impostors—individuals destitute of knowledge, name, and character—pediars, shoemakers, mechanics, &c. advertising themselves as physicians; ignorant quacks, who keep you trilling month after month, as long as possible, and in despair leave you with ruined health to sigh over your galling disappointment. It is this motive alone that induces Dr. J. to advertise, for he alone can cure you. To those unacquainted with his reputation he deems it necessary to say, that his credentials or diplomas always hang in his Office.

AMERICAN TELEGRAPH.

GENERAL GENEROSITY. A Legend, written expressly for the Daily American Telegraph. [COPY-RIGHT NOT SECURED ACCORDING TO LAW.]

> It was a little, little boy, Who sat upon a stone And screwed his fists in both his eyes,

And made a dismal moan : "See there! see there! my playmates all As glad as glad can be!

l do believo if I was dead

There's none would care for me!" At every word there fell a tear-There came a sniffling sound, And now and then his eyes looked out,

But still no solace found!

IV. Ah! weep no more, my little boy, Sweet cherub, stop your tears Though Earth be deaf to breaking hearts.

Yet Heaven in pity hears. It was a little, little man That sought the little child And gently stroked its curling hair,

And thus, in accents mild:

"You are a stranger, boy, to me," The bending figure said, " Yet tell me why you moan and cry, And serow your little head?"

VII. "See there! see there! my playmates all I do believe if I was dead There's none would care for me!"

VIII. " And do the little tyrants, then, Refuse to let you play?
And do they cruelly combine To drive my boy away?"

"No! no! no! no!" the weeper cried, " It aint the game of bandy, A great big stick of candy-

And I've got none!" And hotter tears Adown his hot cheeks went: The visiter no further spoke— But gave the boy a cent!

Now, blessings on the generous soul! And, whosoe'er he be, His place should be the highest place Among the brave and free! WASHINGTON, JULY, 1852.

Editors' Correspondence.

[From our Baltimore Correspondent.] Baltimore, July 20-10 p. m.

It is enough to make the heart of honesty sick to read the numerous slanders put forth by unblushing and unscrupulous Democracy against General Scott. A reader of Democratic papers, if he believed them, would suppose him the vilest. most cowardly, and debased personage living. Why, in the name of Heaven, will political aspirants lie so unblushingly? It would seem that the deepest and most malignant venom of man's corrupt nature is let loose in epithets too vile for Billingsgate against the brave old patriot. Libels and slanders most foul are coined and reiterated, until they become a stench in the nostrils of Democracy. Notwithstanding General Scott has served his country in the most trying sceneshis names and deeds being identified with the brightest pages of her history for fifty years-yet at this peculiar period of his life he must be villified and derided with blasphemous calumny. Men for whose benefit he has fought and shed his blood on the battle-field, before they were born, are now his libellers and revilers. And this they do merely to cheat him out of that crowning civil honor to which his glorious deeds entitle him as a just reward.

But, gentlemen, we may judge of the moral effect of these slanders by comparing them with the calumny which has been heaped upon other pure patriots by the same men, and for similar ends. I suppose they have not forgotten that spotless patriot and splendid statesman, HENRY CLAY, whose spirit but a few brief weeks ago went home to Heaven. Do they remember the infamous charges brought against that venerated man by these same defamers of General Scott? Had he been without friends good and true, even his eventful and unblemished life would scarcely have rescued his character before the world from the loathsome degradation to which these revilers would have sunk it. But when he was dead, they shed tears, eulogized him, and feigned to repent in sackcloth and ashes for the foul wrongs his character sustained at their hands. They confessed their guilt, and joined in the universal cortege of lamentation.

What mockery-what hollow-hearted friendship! Were it possible that the "sage of Ashland" could arise from the dead, and be placed now in the position of Gen. Scott, a Whig candidate for the Presidency-judging from their disposition to calumniate the conquerer of Mex-Democratic eulogists would again be found transformed into calumniators. There is no guaranty that they would not. Who, then, can attach confidence to anything such false-faced hypocrites may say in regard to our present candidate? They are the kind of beings Pollok had in his mind's eye when he said, "With one hand they put a penny in the urn of poverty; with the other, take a shilling out."

After pleading guilty over the bier and tomb of Henry Clay to the unmitigated calumnies heaped by them upon that great and good man, almost to the breaking of his noble, generous heart, who will, who can be so lost to human judgment, when they attempt the same thing in regard to General Scott, as to give them credence?

CHESAPEAKE. The Colonization Cause. We are gratified to learn that Rev. R. R. Gur-

A review of 40,000 Austrian conscripts, by the Emperor of Russia, which we saw a few weeks since, dazzled the eye; but the review of 10,000 citizen soldiers by the vete-ren hero of Queenstown, Chippewa, Lundy's Lane, Cerro Gordo, and Churubusco, (who resembles the Emperor of Russia only in his majestic form and soldierly bearing,) will touch the hearts of 100,000 grateful Americans."

The New-Man Policy.

There is a good deal of curiosity felt just now, on all sides, to know for what personal virtue or public consideration General Frank Pierce was necting with St. Louis via Suffale Claveland nominated for that high office. It is very evident that it could not have been out of deference for his abilities and experience as a statesman, for in those qualities either Mr. Cass or Mr. use. Buchanan far excelled him-nor because of his military genius and services, as in these respects Generals Butler and Houston should have been preferred-nor yet was it in view of his "Young Americanism, "since Senator Douglas stood forth pre-eminently as the representative and champion of this late-born political idea. Nor-pur suing the mystery still further—could Mr. city to-day. Pierce's superiority over all competitors have consisted in his consistency and devotion as a party-man, for in this regard he was not so acceptble as either of the gentlemen whom he superseded, and, in his short Congressional career, had differed from the ablest minds of his own political faith, and voted against measures of national policy which received even the approval and ex-ecutive sanction of President Jackson. What, then, in the name of reason, was that comprehensive, all-sufficient, overshadowing principle or attribute of eligibility possessed by him who bore down, "at one fell swoop," Cass, Marcy, Buchanan, Douglas, and others—the great lights and pillars of the Democracy.
